"Deloitte wins Romanian Tax Firm of the Year in the first year in which ITR analyzes the activity in our country on a national level, not as part of Central and Eastern Europe, as in previous years. This recognition, along with the Romanian Tax Disputes Firm of the Year, honors us because it stands as a confirmation of the professionalism and the involvement shown by our colleagues in each local or cross-country project. In addition, I would like to highlight our contribution to the recognition obtained by Deloitte as the CEE Tax Firm of the Year for the fourth year in a row. Thanks to our multidisciplinary approach, we are able to provide our clients with integrated solutions to the increasingly complex issues they face, in an uncertain economic climate, and so I thank my colleagues and encourage them to remain at least as dedicated and to continue to contribute to further achievements of this kind," said Vlad Boeriu, Tax and Legal Partner-in-Charge, Deloitte Romania.
