

Andreea Serban, the new Associate at Suciul The Employment Law Firm

Andreea Serban joined Suciul The Employment Law Firm after having acquired her expertise in renowned international and local law firms. During her five years of activity as an employment lawyer, Andreea has experienced a high level of responsibility, which has considerably strengthened her ability to think business.

Andreea's experience encompasses legal assistance on individual and collective employment law matters, with a focus on restructuring and redundancies, collective bargaining and European Works Council.

Andreea Suciul: "Andreea is an experienced and highly motivated employment lawyer. Her combination of client orientation, professionalism and commitment are key factors in managing our clients' most complex employment law projects. We are pleased to have Andreea on our team."

Andreea Serban: "I am thrilled to continue my legal path as part of the Suciul The Employment Law Firm team. I am confident that all my knowledge and expertise in the employment field will allow me to provide "best-of-breed" solutions to the firm's current and future clients."

Suciul The Employment Law Firm is a boutique multi-lingual firm (Romanian, English and German) dedicated to excel at developing creative, practical solutions to today's most complex and sophisticated employment law issues.

Multinational companies, large and medium-sized family businesses as well as international investors from various industries, such as: real estate & construction, healthcare, pharma, retail, manufacturing, oil & gas, IT and outsourcing all rely on our expertise.