

Industrial production prices, up 0.1% in January 2021

Total industrial production prices (domestic market and foreign market) increased by 0.1% in January 2021, compared to the same month of the previous year, according to data from the National Institute of Statistics (INS) released on Tuesday.

According to the INS, in January 2021, the prices of total industrial production (domestic market and foreign market) increased by 1.3% compared to December 2020.

By major industrial groups, in January 2021, compared to January 2020, INS statistics show price increases in the case of intermediate goods industry (+ 1.59%), durable goods industry (+ 2.56%), consumer goods industry (+ 3.02%) and the capital goods industry (+ 1.20%). In the energy industry there is a decrease of 5.19%.

In the production and supply of electricity and heating, gas, hot water and air conditioning there is an increase of 3.42% and in the distribution of water, sanitation, waste management, decontamination activities of 4.38%.

In the processing industry there is a decrease of 0.14%, and in the extractive industry there was a reduction of prices by 9.8%.