

File regarding 2009 electoral campaign financing| Journalist Dan Andronic acquitted

The Bucharest Court of Appeal on Tuesday acquitted journalist Dan Andronic, who was sent to trial by the National Anti-corruption Directorate (DNA) for committing perjury and favouring the perpetrator in the file regarding the financing of the electoral campaign of Traian Basescu, in the presidential election of 2009.

The decision is not final and can be attacked by appeal.