

Senate takes note of Florin Citu's resignation from Senate leadership, position vacant

Senators have made the position of Senate president available, on Wednesday, after taking note of Florin Citu's resignation from the Upper Chamber of Parliament.

There were 81 votes in favor of making the position vacant and 12 abstentions.

The interim office will be ensured by Alina Gorghiu.