

Filip & Company assists Alsendo and Abris in the acquisition of Ecolet

Filip & Company law firm assisted Alsendo, the leading delivery management solutions provider in CEE, owned by Abris Capital Partners (“Abris”), a private equity investor specialising in ESG transformation, in the acquisition of Ecolet, a B2X logistics platform and market leader in parcel services in Romania and Bulgaria.

The Filip & Company team assisted Abris with the due diligence process, the negotiation of the sale-purchase agreement, as well as with other transaction implementation matters.

“Online commerce is a growing market with significant opportunities for the shipping market as well. Ecolet is a modern logistics platform, and I am convinced that the future of the investment will be an excellent one with the new partners. We are very grateful to both Abris and Alsendo teams for their trust and excellent cooperation”, said Alexandru Bîrsan, partner at Filip & Company.

The Filip & Company team was coordinated by Alexandru Bîrsan and included in key roles Andreea Banica (senior associate) and Larisa Jurca (associate).

The lawyers at Filip & Company have had important roles in many of the key M&A transactions in Romania. Whether they were privatisations, private equity, venture capital or growth capital transactions or other complex M&A, in most of the cases, at least one of the parties was legally assisted by Filip & Company. Furthermore, the lawyers at Filip & Company are ranked first in the most prestigious international legal directories – Chambers and Partners and Legal 500 - with their M&A practice, both as a team as well as individually.
