

Dentons moves to new office in Bucharest

大成 DENTONS

Dentons, the world's largest law firm, has moved to a stunning new office in Bucharest, located at The Mark, Calea Grivitei nr. 84-98.

The new 1,100 square meter office space on the seventh floor of THE MARK, is an elegant office project developed by S IMMO and located in the heart of Bucharest, on the newly constructed Uranus Boulevard, which, once completed, will connect the northern and southern districts of the city.

“The new office provides a modern and more comfortable space to meet our clients while also encouraging creativity and collaboration among our lawyers and business services teams,” said Perry Zizzi, Romania Managing Partner at Dentons. “Our strategy is to be the number one law firm in Central and Eastern Europe, and to achieve this, we will be investing in growing our capabilities in Bucharest. Our new office will not only accommodate growth, but will also adhere to the high global standards and culture of innovation that people have come to expect from the world's largest law firm.”

BL Associates designed the fit-out for the new premises. Dentons was assisted by Knight Frank for the leasing transaction. JLL provided project management services. Mobius Gallery provided an eclectic selection of contemporary Romanian art.

The Firm currently employs 26 fee earners, including 7 partners, and has been present in the Romanian market for more than 20 years through its legacy firms.
