

NNDKP assists the shareholders of Medima Health in establishing a strategic partnership with the private equity fund Morphosis Capital

NNDKP assisted Medima Health, a chain of medical clinics specialized in imaging and radiology, in relation to the sale of the majority stake held by renowned radiology professor Dr Gheorghe Iana and seasoned CEO, Vlad Ardeleanu to Morphosis Capital, as well as in establishing a strategic partnership with the private equity fund.

Razvan Vlad, Partner in the Corporate M&A practice, assisted by Vlad Anghel, Associate, coordinated the NNDKP team involved in the transaction.

„The transaction involved an intense and steady effort from our team of lawyers, considering the fundamental premise indicated by clients, but also by Morphosis Capital, to complete this transaction in record time, in reasonable commercial terms, as well as in a balanced legal manner for both parties. It was a challenge, but, at the same time, a useful and rewarding experience for our team. Also, I must emphasize that the relatively swift outcome of this transaction would not have been possible without the excellent collaboration between our clients and the representatives of the private equity fund,” stated Razvan Vlad, Partner, Corporate/M&A practice.

Through this transaction, Medima Health envisages the expansion of its clinics in Romania as well as the development of the teleradiology services.
