

Cristofor, Vladu & Associates signs partnership agreement with Brazilian law firm

During the years, Cristofor, Vladu & Associates has crossed the borders of a traditional law firm, emerging its services to the next level. Today, Cristofor, Vladu & Associates is a highly-reputed local law firm with a strong business orientation and international exposure, handling major projects locally and globally, with a valuable network of local clients and international investors doing business in Romania.

Cristofor, Vladu & Associates has partnered with the Brazilian firm Luzone Legal, one of the most prominent and well-established law firms in Brazil. The partnership is part of the law firm's internationalization process, which is ongoing.

The headquarters of the Brazilian firm are located in Rio de Janeiro and its lawyers have a sound expertise in all the law fields, being widely recognized in Brazil for representing local and international companies. The partnership is a strategic move to take advantage of business synergies between Brazil and Romania, both being economically promising and fastest growing countries from South America and Europe, respectively.

“Our goal is to add value and, with this, offer a network of professionals present globally, who can meet the international objectives of expansion of our clients, always focusing on established countries or with a great tendency for economic growth, as is the case of Romania”, highlights Leandro Luzone, Managing Partner of Luzone Legal.

“We aim to offer a strong support to the growth of Romania's potential, boosting on the one side the investments in our country and on the other side the expansion of local businesses across the borders. To this purpose, Brazil is one of our target investment destinations which we are planning to leverage through this partnership”, highlights Casiana Dusa, Senior Associate of Cristofor, Vladu & Associates.

“The partnership with Luzone Legal is a promising step that resulted from our passion for excellence, our international exposure and business vision. We are now able to provide our clients the opportunity to develop their projects in Romania and Brazil, helping them to convert ideas into successful business”, added Iris Cristofor, Founding Partner of Cristofor, Vladu & Associates.

In addition to Brazil, Cristofor, Vladu & Associates has a valuable network of partners and collaborators in Holland, France, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Spain, United States of America and the Middle East.
