

Deposits of non-government resident customers go up by 2.6% in December

Deposits of non-government resident customers have gone up in the month of December 2020 by 2.6%, as opposed to the previous month, up to the level of 420.793 billion RON and by 14.4% (12.1% in real terms) from the same month of the previous year, the National Bank of Romania (BNR) informs, in a press release sent to AGERPRES on Wednesday.

RON deposits of residents, with a weight of 65.2% in the total of non-government resident customers, have gone up by 3.8% as opposed to November 2020, to up to 274.379 billion RON, and by 13.5% (11.2% in real terms) from December 2019.

Household deposits, in RON, have gone up by 2.7% from the previous month, to up to 151.429 billion RON, and as opposed to December 2019 there was a recorded growth of 15.5% (13.1% in real terms).

According to BNR, RON deposits in other sectors (non-financial societies and non-monetary financial institutions) have gone up by 5.2% (to up to 122.950 billion RON) from the previous month and by 11.2% (9% in real terms) from December 2019.

Regarding foreign currency deposits of residents, expressed in RON, representing 34.8% in the total volume of non-government resident deposits, these have gone up by 0.4% as opposed to November 2020, reaching the level of 146,415 billion RON (expressed in Euro, these have gone up by 0.5%, to up to 30.068 billion Euro). Comparing with the month of December 2019, the indicator has gone up by 16.2%, expressed in RON and by 14.1% if expressed in Euro.

Household foreign currency deposits, expressed in RON, have gone up by 0.7% in the month of November 2020, to up to 105.252 billion RON; expressed in Euro, these have gone up by 0.8%. In comparison with the same period of 2019, the growth of this indicator, expressed in RON, was of 15.3% and 13.2%, if the indicator is expressed in Euro.

Furthermore, foreign currency deposits of other sectors, expressed in RON, have gone down to the point of 41.163 billion RON, registering a recoil of 0.4% from November 2020 (drop by 0.3% when the indicator is expressed in Euro). Comparing with December 2019, this indicator, expressed in RON, has gone up by 18.5%, but if expressed in Euro, the growth was of 16.3%.