

Cristofor, Vladu & Associates signs a new international partnership with a leading law firm in Barcelona

Cristofor, Vladu & Associates is glad to announce the international expansion by concluding a new promising partnership with the renowned international law firm Klev & Vera, whose headquarters are based in Barcelona, Spain. According to Cristofor, Vladu & Associates, "this is a natural step as part of our internationalization process".

Klev & Vera have a wide range of specialties that will complement those of Cristofor, Vladu & Associates to the benefit of their and our clients. From corporate, real estate to debt recovery and employment law, this match will ensure a smooth and seamless experience for businesses and individuals with connections to both countries.

Through this partnership, the two law firms will strengthen the personal and commercial ties between Romania and Spain by handling cross-border legal issues with a shared culture of professionalism and diligence. With over 670,000 Romanians currently living in Spain and still more recognizing the great potential the country offers, this sort of collaboration is both essential and very promising.

Both companies have impressive track records in their service of the legal needs of local and international companies. Given such reputations, Cristofor, Vladu & Associates sees a very bright future working hand in hand with Klev & Vera.