

1,063 companies suspend activity during first month of this year

The number of companies that suspended their activity during the first month of this year has dropped by almost 11 %, from the same period of 2020, reaching 1,063, according to the data published by the National Trade Register Office (ONRC).

For activity domains, the most that suspended their activity was registered in the retail and wholesale segments, repair of motor vehicles and motorcycles, namely 326 (-21.26%), other service activities - 120 suspended (-6.19%) and in professional, scientific and technical activities - 78 suspended (-20.18%).