

Roxana Dudau becomes associate partner and leader of the real estate practice of Radu și Asociații SPRL

As of 1 July 2021, Roxana Dudau joins Radu și Asociații SPRL as associate partner and leader of the real estate practice.

Roxana has extensive experience in advising international and local companies, including large investors active in retail and construction and manufacturers in the automotive and aerospace sectors, both in greenfield projects and in the context of expanding existing capacities. She gained this experience as an associate partner in the local office of a traditional German law firm.

As a specialization, Roxana is a real estate lawyer, with an emphasis in urban planning and construction, covering the entire process of a real estate project, from the initial phase (the selection of the project location, due diligence, drafting and negotiating the acquisition documents) to implementation (development of the project, construction and successful commissioning). Her experience covers the office, modern commerce, residential and logistics segments.

"I am happy to join a young and dynamic team of professionals. I am confident that my experience of over 20 years as a business lawyer specialized in real estate projects will significantly contribute to the consolidation of the real estate practice of Radu și Asociații SPRL. I also believe that it is an excellent opportunity to team up with EY specialists in all areas of business consulting to offer our clients integrated solutions in the most diverse areas: evaluation, mergers and acquisitions, tax structuring and state aid. I will also focus on the general coordination of EY service offerings to German-speaking customers", said Roxana Dudau.

"It makes me very happy to wish Roxana success and welcome to our team. Her experience is impressive, and her role will be essential in consolidating and developing our real estate practice.", said Radu Diaconu, managing partner of Radu și Asociații SPRL.
