

LegiTeam: Simion & Baciuc is looking for an associate lawyer

Are you our new colleague @ Simion & Baciuc?

We are expanding our enthusiastic team and we want a new colleagues on our side!

Who we are

We are a close-connected team of people specialized in different fields, with extensive and recognized professional experience, which has proven its efficiency over time.

Our services cover various practice areas, amongst which: intellectual property, gaming and gambling, life sciences, consumer protection and advertising, technology and data protection, etc.

We like to describe ourselves as more than lawyers and consultants, but, first of all, as happy people who like what they do, who are good at trying and finding solutions and are naturally focused on their clients' needs and expectations. We've built long-term relations amongst us and with all our clients and aim to add our resources and knowledge to those of our clients and to integrate our assistance to the experience of the entities for which we work.

Who do we want by our side?

We are currently looking for an associate lawyer to be based in our Bucharest team, with up to 5 years of experience, willing to learn and practice in gambling, privacy, corporate & commercial law, M&A and dispute resolution. Any prior experience in these areas is a plus.

We want our new colleague to be tenacious, open-minded and display a genuine interest in continuous learning across challenging legal domains and industries. English is a must and any other language skills are more than appreciated.

If you are interested in meeting us as much as we are interested in meeting you, please send your CV at HR@simionbaciuc.ro.

Looking forward to meeting you!
