RTPR advises Rodbun Grup on new syndicated financing

RTPR has assisted Rodbun Grup SA in relation to a syndicated loan in amount of RON 278 million to cover regular capital needs as well as to support development plans of the group. The financing was granted by a syndicate of banks made of Banca Comerciala Romana, as mandated lead arranger, bookrunner, documentation, facility and warranties agent, and lender, CEC Bank, as mandated lead arranger, bookrunner, documentation agent, facility and warranty agent and lender, Raiffeisen Bank, as mandated lead arranger and lender, Banca Transilvania and Banca Romaneasca as lenders.

Rodbun Grup is a company - integrator of products and solutions in the agricultural field, having 100\% Romanian capital, established in 2002.

The RTPR team that provided legal assistance on this project included Victor Padurari (Partner), Cosmin Tilea (Counsel) and Andreea Stoiciu (Associate).

RTPR worked together with PCF Investment Banking team (previously known as Professional Capital Finance) who provided specialised financial advice to Rodbun Grup.

For the law firm this transaction marks the third mandate received from Rodbun Group, having previously advised on another two syndicated financings in 2018 and 2021.
"We are pleased to have successfully finalised a new transaction in which we assisted Rodbun Grup, this is our second collaboration in less than one year. The agriculture sector plays an essential role in Romania's economy and the support offered by the banks to Romanian entrepreneurs such as Rodbun Grup, who invest in modern technological solutions which are adapted to new climate reality is promising. On behalf of RTPR team I would like to congratulate our clients for this new financing and to thank them for their trust in our team", declared Cosmin Tilea.
