

Blue Air announces new direct flight from Bucharest to Dusseldorf

Blue Air announces a new direct flight from Bucharest to Dusseldorf, the third largest airport in Germany, starting with summer time 2022, the company announced on Friday.

From April, Blue Air will offer five weekly flights from Bucharest to Dusseldorf, Germany, on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Sundays.

"Blue Air is committed to consolidating its presence in major cities in Germany. We are pleased to offer our passengers a new direct flight from Bucharest to Dusseldorf, managing to expand services from / to Germany to 12 direct flights, thus offering more options of connecting with the economic and business heart of Germany - North Rhine-Westphalia - known for a wide range of industries, including fashion, food and beverage, communications and home appliances," said Krassimir Tanev, Blue Air Commercial Director.

According to Blue Air representatives, plane tickets start at 14.99 euros.