

Bondoc și Asociații strengthens its litigation and arbitration team with partner promotion

Bondoc și Asociații SCA is pleased to announce the promotion of Ioana Katona as an associate lawyer (partner).

After a 10-year commendable activity within the firm, Ioana Katona becomes an associate lawyer within the litigation and arbitration department of Bondoc & Asociații.

Ioana has an extensive experience, with numerous accomplishments in complex administrative and tax law, energy, health, insolvency and civil law litigation cases, including real estate and corporate disputes.

“Ioana's promotion reflects the recognition by colleagues and clients of the talent and efforts of a noteworthy lawyer. It also naturally falls within Bondoc și Asociații's strategy for further development in the next period, while recognizing the merits and contributions of those dedicated to the profession and who stand out," said Lucian Bondoc, managing partner of Bondoc și Asociații SCA.

“I have been working with Ioana for many years and I am very pleased with her promotion as a partner of the firm. I am convinced that the litigation practice will continue to grow at a rapid pace over the next period, and co-opting Ioana as an associate lawyer will increase our capabilities to efficiently manage the many complex mandates in our portfolio", added Viorel Dinu, coordinating partner of Bondoc & Asociații's litigation and arbitration department.

The firm currently has 42 lawyers, including 10 partners
