

NNDKP obtains the annulment of a sanctioning decision issued by the Competition Council against a retailer from the Romanian food products market

Nestor Nestor Diculescu Kingston Petersen (NNDKP) has obtained a major success, confirmed by a final decision of the High Court of Cassation and Justice (HCCJ), namely the annulment of a fine in excess of lei 24 million (approximately Euro 5 million) applied by the Competition Council for allegedly establishing anticompetitive agreements intended to limit prices in the context of the promotional campaigns carried out at the level of food retail chains between 2005 - 2009.

The investigation of the Competition Council, that started in 2009 as a result of the information obtained through the sectoral investigation carried out by the authority on the food products market, was finalized in 2015 with the Competition Council imposing fines in excess of lei 154 million (approximately Euro 35 million). The investigation covered 25 companies carrying out their activity on the food market, namely 4 retail chains and 21 suppliers.

NNDKP has assisted and provided representation to a retailer against whom the Competition Council had imposed one of the highest fines applied in the context of the investigation (of over lei 24 million). Initially, the Bucharest Court of Appeals dismissed the claim filed by the company, seeking the annulment of the fine, and upheld the sanctioning decision.

NNDKP filed an appeal, on behalf of its client, against the decision of the Bucharest Court of Appeals. The HCCJ admitted the appeal, quashed the decision of the Court of Appeals and, after readjudicating the case, admitted in full the complaint filed by the company, annulling the decision of the Competition Council. Therefore, the fine applied by the Council was annulled. Furthermore, the Competition Council was ordered to pay the trial expenses incurred by the company. The decision of the HCCJ is final.

The NNDKP team that provided assistance and representation in this complex case was coordinated by Sorina Olaru, Partner in the Dispute Resolution practice, and Georgeta Dinu, Partner and Head of the Competition practice, and included Daniela Savin, Managing Associate, and Razvan Banța, Associate, members of the Dispute Resolution practice, and Anca Diaconu (Pascu), Partner in the Competition practice. The project is a new example of the efficient collaboration between NNDKP's litigation and consultancy practices, due to the involvement of a highly specialized multidisciplinary team with extensive experience in litigation arising from competition law issues.

"After a difficult process that lasted for seven years, which entailed both notifying the Constitutional Court and obtaining a decision from the European Court of Justice, the dispute was resolved by a final decision rendered in favor of the retail chain. The decision is all the more valuable due to the fact that it is among the first final decisions ordering the annulment of a sanction imposed by the Competition Council in the context of the aforementioned investigation. We are pleased to have had the opportunity to bring our contribution to the resolution of a new dispute that helps to create a benchmark for the Romanian jurisprudence. We would like to thank our client for this opportunity! At the same time, I want to congratulate the entire NNDKP team involved in the project!”, said Sorina Olaru.
