

LegiTeam | Bulboaca & Asociații is looking for a senior lawyer (Litigations)

Bulboaca & Asociații is looking for a senior lawyer to join their Litigations team.

Bulboaca & Asociații has one of the most powerful brands in the Romanian legal market, with predominant experience in financing & restructuring, mergers & acquisitions, insolvency & litigation and labour law. We are involved in some of the most sensible and demanding transactions or matters, very often quite difficult to close or to solve, whereby a staggering, passionate and a determined approach, alongside with specific legal and business acumen plays a fundamental role. We counsel financial institutions, funds, companies, their senior management or shareholders with respect to situations that are critical. When our clients are facing a major challenge, that is beyond the usual thinking or unsolvable, our experience evidences that also in such situations there are real chances to make a deal or to solve a matter.

Our distinctive approach is reflected in the way we are organised. We keep a ratio of associates to partners that is well below that of other law firms in Romania. We are focused on transactions or matters that require the involvement of the long tested sophisticated experience of our partners. Having as objective a high quality legal advice, we select carefully the type of transactions or matters we get involved in. We work in teams whose members are having the relevant expertise for the subject transactions or matters. Our selection, promotion and award system is focused with priority on lawyers that are talented and are having entrepreneurial ingredients, that support our clients in solving their sensible and critical needs.
