

Stratulat Albulescu advises Reorg in relation to the acquisition of the modern technology provider – FinDox

A corporate team at SAA advised the global provider of credit intelligence, data and analytics, Reorg on the Romanian elements of the acquisition of FinDox, a US based workflow management and data solution provider.

This acquisition will further enhance Reorg's portfolio of data, analysis and workflow tools. Moreover, this investment will bolster Reorg's technology leadership and accelerate the company's track record of innovation and growth.

Founded in 2016, FinDox offers next-generation workflow management and data solution for financial professionals. FinDox's platform offers a streamlined, smart way to handle confidential document aggregation, restricted list automation and regulatory reporting for private credit markets in the U.S. and Europe. FinDox provides clean data, reporting and document controls in one centralized location.

Founded in 2013, Reorg is a global provider of credit intelligence, data and analytics, with offices on three continents. The company has experienced rapid growth over the last decade and today serves more than 26,000 professionals across the world's leading hedge funds, asset managers, investment banks, law firms, professional services and advisors.

The Stratulat Albulescu team was led by Managing Partner Silviu Stratulat and Managing Associate Raluca Gabor.