

Promotions within the Filip & Company team. Cristina Tudoran and Silviu Vasile join the partnership

Reflecting the depth of talent and the firm’s commitment to continually investing in the future, Filip & Company is promoting two partners and a senior associate this spring. Cristina Tudoran (Employment and Dispute resolution) and Silviu Vasile (Competition) have been co-opted into the partnership and Simona Ungureanu (Corporate and M&A) joins the team of senior associates.

“The promotions we are announcing today recognise the exceptional merits, contributions and achievements of talented, competent, and dedicated colleagues who enjoy the full support of the team and the trust and loyalty of our clients. These promotions also reflect our growth plans and respect the long-term interests of our firm as a whole”, says Cristina Filip, managing partner at Filip & Company.

Cristina Tudoran is a lawyer specialised in dispute resolution and labour law. Cristina’s activity focuses on advising on sensitive labour law matters and labour dispute resolution on the one hand, and administrative and tax litigation and arbitration, on the other. In terms of labour law assistance, Cristina’s expertise includes legal advice on complex restructurings, the impact of TUPE on transactions and subsequent integrations, trade union disputes, civil contract reclassification or sensitive negotiations with senior management. From a litigation and arbitration perspective, the core of her work consists of assisting clients in administrative and tax litigation, construction law, international arbitration, or disputes with ANPC.

Silviu Vasile specialises in competition law, providing legal assistance in various investigations conducted by the competition authority, merger notifications, preparation of compliance programmes or day-to-day assistance. Silviu’s expertise also includes the pharmaceutical and healthcare sectors, where he assists clients with complex projects involving regulatory issues and various contractual structures.

Simona Ungureanu has relevant experience in company law. The main areas in which she specialises, and in which she has been involved in many of the top deals in recent years, are corporate law and mergers and acquisitions.

As a result of these promotions, Filip & Company’s team of lawyers includes 99 members of which 15 partners, 2 counsels, 15 senior associates and 40 associates.
