

Kinstellar announces new promotions in Bucharest

Kinstellar is delighted to announce the promotion to Managing Associate of Madalina Perțe (Corporate M&A), Andrei Covaliu (Dispute Resolution) and Razvan Constantinescu (Banking and Finance), and to Senior Associate of Raluca Constantin (Dispute Resolution).

These promotions come as a recognition of their contribution to the office's recent development and their commitment to delivering exceptional value to the clients.

Madalina Perțe specializes in Corporate / M&A matters where she has dealt with various assignments. She has also been involved in multiple due diligence exercises and regularly advises companies on daily housekeeping matters. Madalina's expertise extends to capital markets and financial regulatory. Clients describe her as "a competent, reliable and dedicated lawyer; very good communication skills, high level of availability."

Andrei Covaliu specialises in dispute resolution and further focuses on compliance, risk and sensitive investigations. He has gained experience in litigation matters covering various areas (administrative law, public procurement, contractual liability and liability in tort), and has been recently involved in a large number of complex, high-profile litigations.

Razvan Constantinescu focuses on banking & finance, as well as on a wide range of financial regulatory and capital markets matters. With several years of experience, he has already taken a primary role in numerous transactions having been involved in some of the most landmark, cross-border financings our office has recently assisted.

Raluca Constantin specialises in Dispute Resolution where she has advised companies on a wide range of administrative contentious matters, as well as projects related to compliance, risk and sensitive investigations. Raluca has been recently involved in a number of challenging cross-practice litigations.

Victor Constantinescu, Managing Partner Romania, comments: "The entire Bucharest and firm management thank them, and extend the thanks to all members of the Bucharest office. With these appointments, and with the entire local team's support, we intend to grow the Bucharest office even more – to be a leader and the "go-to" firm in Romania across all practice areas".
