

NNDKP assists a syndicate of banks in providing a EUR 550 million financing to the Ameropa Group

Nestor Nestor Diculescu Kingston Petersen (NNDKP) has assisted a syndicate of banks in providing EUR 550 million in financing to the Swiss group Ameropa, which owns some of the largest local agribusiness companies - Azomures, Romania's largest fertilizer producer, Ameropa Grains SA, a major grain trader, and Chimpex, a leader in port operations. The syndicate of banks consisted of Banca Comerciala Româna SA, Raiffeisen Bank SA, ING Bank Romania, Unicredit Bank SA, Alpha Bank Romania SA, Banca Transilvania SA, BRD Groupe Societe Generale SA, Banca Comerciala Intesa Sanpaolo Romania SA and GarantiBank International NV.

The syndicated loan will be used by Ameropa Group's Romanian entities to refinance the main credit facility in Romania.

NNDKP assisted the banks throughout the project, advising on complex transaction structuring aspects (including the implementation of ancillary and accordion facilities) as well as on the preparation and negotiation of the financing documents.

The NNDKP team involved in this transaction was led by Valentin Voinescu, Partner in the Banking and Finance practice, and included Senior Associate Alexandru Ciambur and Associate Catalina Dan, from the same practice.

“We are honored to have advised the banks in a large syndicate, which included almost all the big names in corporate banking in the Romanian system, in a transaction that can be considered a truly remarkable one for the last decade, not only due to its size, but also to its exceptional technical complexity”, declared Valentin Voinescu, Partner at NNDKP.
