

Stratulat Albulescu advises Canadian Mitel Group on the Romanian elements of Unify acquisition

A multidisciplinary team led by Managing Partner Silviu Stratulat advised Mitel Group, a Canadian company and global market leader in communication on the Romanian elements of the acquisition of Unify (the Unified Communications and Collaboration and Communication and Collaboration Services) from Atos Group.

The acquisition strengthens Mitel's position in multiple geographies and segments, while reinforcing the company's commitment to delivering choice and flexibility for business communications customers and establishing a deep bench of talent to accelerate innovation in the Unified Communications space.

Together with Unify, Mitel now has a combined customer base of more than 75M users in over 100 countries and an expanded community of more than 5,500 resellers, service providers, technology, and strategic alliance partners poised to help even more organizations modernize and adapt their communications capabilities to meet the evolving needs of today's workplace.

Powering more than two billion business connections, Mitel helps businesses and service providers connect, collaborate and provide innovative services to their customers. The Company's innovation and communications experts serve business users in more than 100 countries.

The SAA team advising on the Romanian law elements of the transaction was led by Managing Partner Silviu Stratulat and included, among other, Partner Cristina Man, Associate Amanda Csaki.