Reff & Associates | Deloitte Legal launches a new edition of the educational project “Law Is Awesome!”, designed specifically for third-year law students who wish to understand what practicing law and business consultancy entails. The program will be officially launched during an event scheduled for December 5, 2023, starting from 12:30, at the Faculty of Law within the University of Bucharest (36-46 Mihail Kogalniceanu Boulevard). The participation to the event requires filling in the registration form by December 3, 2023, at 23:59, and does not imply enrollment in the program.

Students can apply for the program until January 10, 2024, and those selected will participate in a series of ten workshops conducted by lawyers from Reff & Associates | Deloitte Legal, along with Deloitte professionals and their guests, between February and April 2024, at the law firm's headquarters in Bucharest. This new edition brings a concentrated program in springtime, tailored to the third-year students' curricula and updated in line with the market's latest challenges. Additionally, participants will benefit from counseling sessions with human resources specialists, job shadowing alongside the firm's lawyers, as well as interaction with clients. At the end of the workshop period, students will receive personalized recommendations from trainers, and some of them will be selected for an internship in the summer of 2024.

“Law Is Awesome!” is an educational project with tradition that we have organized and continuously updated for the past seven years. This program has so far complemented students' academic experience with practical know-how and has accompanied over 180 enthusiastic young individuals in preparing for the careers they dream of. The appreciative feedback received from participants in previous editions brings us great joy and confirms that the holistic approach we propose is valuable for young individuals starting their journey - they say the experience was memorable, not to be missed, and it gave them confidence in their abilities, taught them teamwork, and how to think like a lawyer,” said Andreea Șerban, Senior Managing Associate, Reff & Associates | Deloitte Legal, initiator and coordinator of the “Law Is Awesome!” project.
