LegiTeam: Attorney (flexible position) Competition, EU & Foreign trade - Bucharest

We are looking for a qualified attorney (internal rank/position to be discussed based on experience) with

→   at least 5 years PQE (no upper limit when it comes to work experience / all applications will be considered), with a focus on EU & competition law, including FDI, merger control and general antitrust / compliance (both vertical and horizontal agreements);
→   experience in investigations and antitrust litigation;
→   a general business- and solution-oriented approach;
→   commitment to team work and client service;
→   interest in business development initiatives, including speaker engagements, conferences etc.;
→   curiosity in continuous learning and development;

we offer
→   access to interesting local and cross-border projects for high-profile clients;
→   involvement in some of the largest-scale investigations and antitrust cases, full-blown support from dawn raids to antitrust litigation;
→   opportunity to manage and coordinate projects / filings, as person in charge;
→   tailored support with business development initiatives and your career growth needs, including e-learning tools, on-site training programmes, regular meetings with the competition, EU and foreign trade teams in our 15 offices across the Central and Eastern Europe;
→   an international working environment and a friendly workplace;
→   the chance to become part of a diverse and inclusive firm whose values are excellence, commitment, flexibility, learning, individuality, and team.

Are you interested in being part of our successful, growing, career-minded team?
If so, we would love to hear from you.
