

Ana-Maria Baciú recognized as a Global Market Leader in Gaming and Gambling by Chambers and Partners Global

Chambers and Partners, a highly regarded publication that ranks the top lawyers and law firms in over 200 jurisdictions worldwide, has released the 2025 edition of its global rankings. For the 4th consecutive year, Ana-Maria Baciú, Managing Partner of BACIU PARTNERS is recognized as a top professional in the field of Gaming and Gambling by the reputable publication, being named a Global Market Leader and highly ranked among the world's leading lawyers active in this field, part of a selected group of only 70 lawyers.

The evaluation is based on thorough and independent research of the legal community, with independent observers cited by the analysis mentioning that "Ana's commercial vision is strong", with the editorial also mentioning that "in a dynamic industry such as gaming Ana ensures that she is able to understand our needs and is able to identify changes in legislation that might impact us differently to her other clients".

These accolades represent a strong motivation for BACIU PARTNERS' team to relentlessly deepen its already hard-to-match capabilities and its client-centric approach that independent observers have continuously applauded.

At the heart of our award-winning Gaming & Gambling Regulatory practice lies a commitment to fostering an outstanding level of client service and a focus to staying ahead of the game. Our team of lawyers passionately advocates for clarity in regulations, given our unwavering belief that compliance is paramount for all industry stakeholders. By championing transparency and ethical conduct, we strive to ensure the industry's regulatory-aligned growth.

"Being reconfirmed in the elite group of Global Market Leaders by Chambers and Partners reinforces my engagement with the gaming and gambling industry and its continuous evolution. Navigating its complexities requires legal expertise and a strategic vision aligning regulation with business realities. The BACIU PARTNERS Gaming & Gambling Regulatory team remains dedicated to providing clarity, ensuring compliance, and supporting ethical growth in an ever-evolving market", mentioned Ana-Maria Baciú.
