

Event: ICC Arbitration Breakfast in Romania, 14 May 2025, Bucharest

On 14 May 2025, the ICC Dispute Resolution Services will host the first edition of the "ICC Arbitration Breakfast in Romania" event, a critical platform for professionals to engage with the evolving landscape of ICC arbitration.

Organized by ICC Dispute Resolution Services and sponsored by Schoenherr and Addleshaw Goddard, this event will focus on current trends, offering insights into ICC arbitration's distinctive features, including a behind-the-scenes look at the ICC Court scrutiny process and its role in positioning ICC as a trusted arbitration institution. The event will also include a discussion on the financial aspects of ICC arbitration, addressing key issues such as cost allocation, fee structures, and strategies for managing cost-related risks in complex disputes.

Initiated by the current ICC Court members for Romania, Ioana Knoll-Tudor (Partner, Addleshaw Goddard; Member, ICC Court) and Sebastian Guțiu (Office Managing Partner, Schoenherr Romania; Alternate Member, ICC Court), the event will be co-hosted together with Alexander G. Fessas (Secretary General, ICC International Court of Arbitration; Director, ICC Dispute Resolution Services). It will also feature recognised Romanian practitioners active in international arbitration, joining as guest speakers: Cristina Alexe (Partner, ACEADVISOR), Cornel Popa (Partner, Țuca, Zbârcea & Asociații), Cristiana Stoica (Founding Partner, Stoica & Asociații), Cosmin Vasile (Managing Partner, Zamfirescu Racoți Vasile & Partners).

The ICC Arbitration Breakfast in Romania provides attendees with the opportunity to connect with peers, leading experts, and top-level representatives of the ICC International Court of Arbitration. It also offers excellent potential for networking to professionals involved in international dispute resolution.

Who should attend? Private practice lawyers advising on international arbitration, arbitrators, mediators, business professionals, academics, general counsel, and in-house legal teams from companies across various industries.
