

Infinexa Strengthens Its Management Team, Appoints Mircea Șomlea as Partner – Former Executive Who Managed Non-Performing Loans at CEC Bank

Infinexa, a Romanian entrepreneurial company specializing in the restructuring and financing of distressed businesses, with €170 million in assets under management, announces the strengthening of its leadership team through the appointment of Mircea Șomlea as Senior Partner.

Mircea Șomlea brings over 10 years of experience in banking, focused on managing corporate non-performing loans and leading restructuring processes for both large companies and SMEs. For six years, he served as Deputy Director at CEC Bank, where he coordinated the corporate NPL portfolio and handled some of Romania's most complex recovery projects.

“My goal is to help consolidate Infinexa's position as a leader in the restructuring field and to jointly develop innovative solutions that effectively respond to the complex challenges facing the Romanian business environment,” said Mircea Șomlea, Senior Partner at Infinexa.

Adrian Lotrean, Managing Partner of Infinexa, added: “Mircea's experience brings valuable diversification to our in-house expertise, especially in strategic management and the perspective of institutional banking creditors. This step is essential for delivering added value to all our stakeholders and efficiently managing the complex projects in Infinexa's portfolio.”

Founded just two and a half years ago, Infinexa already manages 45 active projects, with over €170 million in assets under administration and a team of 15 professionals. Insolvency practitioners Alexandra Tanasie and Alexandru Stanciu, who have significantly contributed to the company's growth, have been promoted to Partner status, also taking on coordinating roles in the firm's local subsidiaries.

INFINEXA is a Romanian entrepreneurial company specializing in the restructuring and financing of companies in distress. Founded in 2022, it manages assets worth over €170 million and serves as court-appointed administrator for companies such as Blue Air, Vivre Deco, Hidroconstrucția, and Angst.
