

Chambers Europe Awards: Țuca Zbârcea & Asociații Named "Law Firm of the Year: Romania"

Țuca Zbârcea & Asociații has won the "Law Firm of the Year: Romania" award at the Chambers Europe Awards 2026, organised by the prestigious international guide Chambers & Partners. This marks the fourth time the firm has received this top international recognition.

Chambers Europe Awards 2026 took place in Madrid, gathering hundreds of leaders from the European legal community. In a festive setting, Chambers & Partners presented 34 trophies to Europe's top law firms and lawyers to celebrate outstanding legal achievements, excellence in client service, strategic growth and innovation across the continent.

Six law firms competed in the race for the "Law Firm of the Year: Romania" trophy, the most important accolade on the local market. Țuca Zbârcea & Asociații secured the win, reconfirming its position as the market leader in Romania. Additionally, the firm led by Florentin Țuca and Gabriel Zbârcea was the only Romanian player shortlisted for the "Pro Bono - Outstanding Firm" award.

The "Law Firm of the Year: Romania" award reflects independent and rigorous research conducted for the Chambers Europe 2026 edition of the guide, based on direct client feedback and analysis of large-scale cross-border transactions.

"This international trophy is a recognition of our entire team's hard work and the strong partnerships we build every day with our clients. In a period marked by major economic reconfigurations, this award honours us and drives us to maintain the highest standards of client service for years to come", said Serban Păslaru, Partner at Țuca Zbârcea & Asociații, who attended the awards ceremony in Madrid.

According to the editors of Chambers Europe, "Țuca Zbârcea & Asociații is a firmly established name in the Romanian legal market, with this year's guide highlighting the firm's particularly strong performance across Romanian sections. Known for delivering clear, business-focused advice on high-impact matters, the team combines technical rigour with a pragmatic, commercial outlook that resonates strongly with clients. This approach is captured by one client who notes: "Its advice is concise and practical, keeping the company's business interest at the centre. It is also commercially minded, and I could not recommend it more."

The Chambers Europe Awards honour Europe's top law firms and lawyers across diverse practice areas. Organised annually by Chambers & Partners, the Gala rewards the professional excellence of law firms in a wide number of jurisdictions across the continent.
